

The National Association of Broadcasters do not have the right to dictate what I listen to. If their members did a better job I wouldn't have to pay for excellent radio. I love xm radio. It gives me security knowing that I can get information from satellite radio no matter where I go. I respectfully urge the FCC to reject NAB'S petition 04-160.

Thank you, Kristie Karn